Corporations Act 2001
A Public Company Limited by Shares
Constitution
of
Travellers Choice Limited

1 Nature of Company

- 1.1 The Company is a public company limited by shares.
- 1.2 The Company was established with the co-operative values and intends to operate as a “mutual entity” (as that term is defined in the Corporations Act) for the benefit of its Members.
- 1.3 The Company intends to be a "MCI Mutual Entity" for the purposes of the Corporations Act, pursuant to section 167 AC(d) of the Corporations Act.

2 Object of the Company

- 2.1 The Company’s primary purpose is to provide financial benefits and business support to independent travel agents.
- 2.2 The Company will operate on cooperative principles for the benefit of the independent travel agents who become Shareholders and trade actively with the Company.

3 Membership

- 3.1 A person shall not be entitled to be issued Member Shares in and become a Member of the Company unless:
 - 3.1.1 the applicant does (or is about to) conduct business as a travel agent and undertakes that it will upon admission as a Member, conduct business with the Company and its Preferred Suppliers;
 - 3.1.2 the applicant is solvent, and
 - 3.1.3 the applicant is otherwise of good character and reputation.

- 3.2 The onus shall be upon the applicant for membership to prove to the satisfaction of the Directors that the applicant fulfils the qualification for membership specified in clause 3.1 and the Directors may in their absolute and unfettered discretion refuse membership to any applicant without assigning any reason for their decision.
- 3.3 Application for Member Shares must be lodged at the Office in or to the effect of the form prescribed from time to time by the Directors. The Directors may require the applicant for Member Shares to pay a joining fee at the time of lodgement of the application.
- 3.4 Upon approval of the application for membership and payment of the issue price of the Member Shares, the Member Shares shall be allotted to the applicant, and their name shall be duly entered in the Register of Members and register of Shareholders. The applicant shall be notified of such allotment and shall thereupon be entitled to the benefits of membership.
- 3.5 If an application for membership be not approved, any amount paid by the applicant to the Company in connection with the application shall be returned to the applicant without interest.
- 3.6 The Directors may require Members to pay an annual membership fee in an amount determined by the Directors from time to time.

4 Issue of shares

Power to issue shares

- 4.1 Subject to ensuring that the Company continues to meet the requirements of a MCI Mutual Entity for the purposes of the Corporations Act, shares in the Company may be issued only by the Directors.

Class of Shares

- 4.2 There is, at the time of adoption of this Constitution, two (2) classes of shares known as “Member Shares” and “MCI Shares”. Member Shares cannot be converted into MCI Shares and MCI Shares cannot be converted into Member Shares.
- 4.3 Member Shares have the following limitations, rights and entitlements:
- 4.3.1 The Company may only issue Member Shares:
- (a) to Members; and
 - (b) only if the Member pays the full issue price in cash on issue.
- 4.3.2 Member Shares carry a right to vote but that right to vote is limited to one (1) vote per Member regardless of the number of Member Shares held;
- 4.3.3 Member Shares confer on its holder a right to participate in dividends (if any) declared; and

- 4.3.4 on a winding up, all Members are entitled to participate in any surplus. Such distribution of surplus will be based on the number of Member Shares held by the relevant Member.
- 4.4 MCI Shares have the following limitations, rights and entitlements:
- 4.4.1 the Company may only issue MCI Shares as a fully paid share;
- 4.4.2 MCI Shares do not carry a right to vote;
- 4.4.3 MCI Shares confer on its holder a right to participate in dividends (if any) declared. These dividends are non-cumulative;
- 4.4.4 the right to participate in dividends outlined in clause 4.4.3 only arises when payment of the dividend is fair and reasonable to Members and Shareholders;
- 4.4.5 on a winding up, all holders of MCI Shares are entitled to participate in any surplus with priority over Member Shares. Such distribution of surplus will be based on the number of MCI Shares held by the relevant holder of MCI Shares; and
- 4.4.6 any other limitations, rights or entitlements the Board may choose provided that such limitations, rights or entitlement are otherwise consistent with this clause 4.4.
- 4.5 The terms of issue, rights and entitlements to dividends and distributions, and value in respect of shares (other than Member Shares) that may be issued by the Directors from time to time, will be determined by the Directors in their absolute discretion provided always the Company complies with the Corporations Act and maintains its status as a MCI Mutual Entity.

Maximum number of shares which may be issued to any Shareholder

- 4.6 The maximum number of Member Shares that a Member may be issued is 10,000, or such other maximum number as the Directors may determine.

Minimum number of shares to be issued to any one Shareholder

- 4.7 The minimum number of Member Shares that a Shareholder must hold is 200.

Value of Shares

- 4.8 All Member Shares will be of one class, all ranking equally and shall have an issue price of $5.00.
- 4.9 All MCI Shares will be of one (1) class, all ranking equally and shall have an issue price as determined by the Board.

Shares not to be Listed

- 4.10 With the exception of MCI Shares, shares in the Company shall not be quoted for sale or purchase at any stock exchange or in any other public manner whatsoever.

Trusts over shares

- 4.11 Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the Company as holding a share on trust.
- 4.12 Except as provided by this document or the law, the Company may recognise only an absolute right to the entirety of a share in the registered holder and, regardless of it having notice of any other interest or right, the Company is not bound by, or compelled in any way to recognise, any equitable, contingent, future, partial or other right or interest in a share or unit of a share.

Entitlement to certificates

- 4.13 Every Shareholder is entitled on allotment of shares to receive a certificate in accordance with the Corporations Act. A Shareholder may request a replacement for a lost or damaged certificate by submission to the Company Secretary of a statutory declaration confirming the loss or damage and paying any fee prescribed by the Directors for the issue of the replacement.

Issue of certificates to joint holders

- 4.14 The Company is not bound to issue more than one certificate in respect of a share held jointly by several persons. Delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders is sufficient delivery to all such holders.

Rights and obligations of joint holders

- 4.15 If several persons are jointly entitled to a share all of the following apply:
- 4.15.1 In the absence of an express direction from those persons to the contrary, the Company may enter the names of those persons as Shareholders in the Register of Shareholders in the order in which their names appear on the application for shares or the instrument of transfer or the notice of death or bankruptcy given to the Company to establish those persons' entitlement to the share.
 - 4.15.2 It is a sufficient discharge of any of the Company's obligations to those persons if the Company discharges that obligation in relation to the first named holder of the share in the Register of Shareholders.
 - 4.15.3 Any one of those persons may give effectual receipts for any dividend or return of capital payable to those persons.
 - 4.15.4 Those persons are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls, interest and other amounts in respect of the share.

5 Alteration of capital

- 5.1 The Company may do anything in respect of its share capital permitted by the Corporations Act, including any one or more of the following:
- 5.1.1 Convert all or any of its shares into a larger or smaller number of shares.

5.1.2 Any form of capital reduction or buy back, provided that the Company maintains its status as a MCI Mutual Entity for the purposes of the Corporations Act.

5.2 Subject to clause 6, if there are different classes of shares on issue, the rights attached to a class may only be varied according to sections 167AE and 246B of the Corporations Act.

6 Variation and Cancellation of MCI Shares

6.1 MCI Shares can only be varied or cancelled by special resolution of the Company and either:

6.1.1 by special resolution passed at a meeting of all Members holding the same class of MCIs; or 6.1.2 with the written consent of at least 75% of the holders of the class of MCI.

7 Cessation of MCI Mutual Entity

7.1 Pursuant to s 167AG of the Corporations Act, a resolution of the Company that would result in the Company ceasing to be an MCI mutual entity can only take effect if:

7.1.1 there are no MCI Shares in the Company; or

7.1.2 the resolution provides for each MCI Share to be cancelled at or before the time the Company ceases to be an MCI mutual entity (whether or not the holders of the MCIs to be cancelled are to receive other securities in respect of those MCI Shares).

8 Lien

Money secured by lien

8.1 The Company has a first and paramount lien on every share which is not fully paid and on all dividends payable in respect of that share as follows:

8.1.1 For all money (whether presently payable or not) called or payable on allotment or at a fixed time in respect of that share.

8.1.2 For all money payable to the Company by the Shareholder on any account whatsoever or, in the case of a deceased Shareholder, by the deceased Shareholder's estate, provided that where the share is registered in the name of more than one Shareholder, the money is payable jointly by each of the registered holders of that share.

8.2 The Directors may exclude at any time by resolution a share either wholly or in part from the lien created under this document.

Power of sale

- 8.3 The Company may sell, in any manner which the Directors think fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien.
- 8.4 A share on which the Company has a lien must not be sold unless both of the following are satisfied:
- 8.4.1 A sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable.
- 8.4.2 A period of 14 days has elapsed after the Company has given to the Shareholder in whose name the share is registered or the person entitled thereto by reason of the Shareholder's death or bankruptcy a notice in writing, stating the amount, and demanding payment, of the part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable.
- 8.5 The Company may do all things necessary to give effect to the sale of those shares on which the Company has a lien, including authorise a Director, Secretary or other person to execute a transfer of the shares sold in favour of the purchaser of the shares.
- 8.6 The Company must register the purchaser of any shares sold as the holder of the shares. The purchaser is not bound to see to the application of the purchase money. The title of the purchaser to the shares is not affected by an irregularity or invalidity in connection with the sale.

Application of proceeds of sale

- 8.7 The proceeds of the sale must be received by the Company and the money remaining after deducting the expenses of sale must be applied in payment of that part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable. The residue, if any, must (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

9 Calls on shares

Power to make calls

- 9.1 The Directors may from time to time in accordance with this document make calls on Shareholders for any money unpaid on the Shareholders' shares which is not by the conditions of allotment of the share made payable at fixed times.
- 9.2 The Directors may, on the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.
- 9.3 The Directors may require that a call be paid by instalments.
- 9.4 A call or an instalment of a call may not be made payable at a date less than one (1) month after the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call or instalment.
- 9.5 The Directors may at any time revoke or postpone a call.

Time of call

- 9.6 A call is to be treated as made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising the call is passed.

Notice of calls

- 9.7 A Shareholder on whom a call is made must be given at least 14 days notice specifying both of the following:

- 9.7.1 The amount of the call.
9.7.2 The due date for payment.

Liability to pay calls

- 9.8 A Shareholder on whom a call is made in accordance with this document must pay to the Company the amount called on its shares at the time or times and place specified.

Interest on unpaid calls

- 9.9 If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment, the person from whom the sum is due must pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment of the sum called to the time of actual payment at a rate not exceeding 10% per annum determined by the Directors. The Directors may waive payment of interest, either wholly or in part, on sums called but unpaid.

Sums payable on allotment or at a fixed date

- 9.10 Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at a fixed date is for the purposes of this document treated as a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the sum becomes payable.
- 9.11 In case of non-payment of a sum payable on allotment or at a fixed date, all the relevant provisions of this document as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture, or otherwise apply as if the sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Advances of uncalled amounts

- 9.12 The Directors may accept all or part of the money uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by a Shareholder which the Shareholder is willing to advance to the Company.
- 9.13 The Directors may authorise the payment of interest on the whole or a part of an advance of any uncalled amount due on shares until the date the amount would have been payable but for the advance at a rate not exceeding 8% per annum or a rate fixed from time to time by the Company in general meeting.

10 Forfeiture of shares

Notice of default

- 10.1 If

- 10.1.1 a Member fails to pay a call or instalment of any amount payable by the Member to the Company for any reason on the day when it is due for payment; or
- 10.1.2 a Shareholder fails to pay a call or instalment of a call on the day when it is due for payment, the Directors may, while any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, give notice requiring the Member and/or Shareholder to pay the unpaid call or instalment together with any interest which may have accrued. The notice must do both of the following:

- 10.1.3 Specify a further day (not earlier than 14 days after the date of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made.
- 10.1.4 State that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed,
 - (a) all of the Member Shares will be liable to be forfeited (if the amount due relates to membership generally); or
 - (b) the Shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

Forfeiture

- 10.2 If the requirements of a notice relating to forfeiture given under this document are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect at any time before the payment required by the notice has been made.
- 10.3 A forfeiture includes all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
- 10.4 Before a sale or disposition of a forfeited share the Directors may annul the forfeiture on terms determined by the Directors.

Sale of forfeited shares

- 10.5 A forfeited share becomes the property of the Company and may be sold or otherwise disposed of on the terms and in the manner determined by the Directors in accordance with the Corporations Act.

Transfer and consideration

- 10.6 The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for a forfeited share on any sale or disposition of the share and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the transferee.
- 10.7 On execution of the transfer the transferee must be registered as the holder of the share. The transferee is not bound to see to the application of any money paid as consideration.
- 10.8 The title of the transferee to the share is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in connection with the forfeiture, sale, or disposal of the share.

Liability of former Shareholder

- 10.9 A person whose shares have been forfeited ceases to be a Shareholder in respect of the forfeited shares but remains liable to pay to the Company all money that, at the date of forfeiture, was payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares or membership liabilities generally.
- 10.10 The money which the former Shareholder is liable to pay to the Company and which may be recovered at the discretion of the Directors includes both of the following:
- 10.10.1 Interest on the money for the time being unpaid.
- 10.10.2 The expenses incurred by the Company in respect of the forfeiture and sale of the shares.
- 10.11 The liability of a defaulting Shareholder ceases if and when the Company receives payment in full of all the money which the defaulting Shareholder is liable to pay.

Statement of forfeiture

- 10.12 A statement in writing declaring that the person making the statement is a Director or Secretary, and that a share has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the statement, may not be objected to by any person claiming to be entitled to the share.

Non payment of other sums

- 10.13 The provisions of this document as to forfeiture apply in the case of non-payment of a sum that, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, as if that sum had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

11 Transfer of shares

Form of transfer

- 11.1 A transfer of shares must be in writing in a usual form or in another form approved by the Directors.

Effect of transfers

- 11.2 A transferor remains the holder of the shares transferred until the transfer is registered and the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect of the shares. If the shares are Member Shares, they must only be transferred to a person who is eligible for (and is approved by the Board for) membership in accordance with clause 3.1.

Registration procedure

- 11.3 A transfer of shares must be left for registration at the Office, or at another place determined by the Directors, accompanied by all of the following:
- 11.3.1 The certificate for the shares to which it relates.
- 11.3.2 Evidence that any fee payable on registration of the transfer has been paid.

11.3.3 Evidence reasonably required by the Directors to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer.

11.4 The Directors may register the transferee as a Shareholder and retain the document of transfer.

Directors power to refuse registration

11.5 The Directors may refuse to register a transfer of shares in the Company if any of the following apply:

11.5.1 The shares are not fully paid;

11.5.2 The Company has a lien on the shares; or

11.5.3 (if the Share are Member Shares) the transferee does not fulfil the qualifications for membership specified in clause 3.1, and they are not bound to give their reasons for so doing.

11.6 If the Directors refuse to register a transfer of a share in the Company, the Directors must give written notice of the refusal to the person who lodged the transfer within two (2) months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company.

Closure of register

11.7 The Directors may suspend registration of transfers of shares in the Company at the times and for those periods they determine. The periods of suspension must not exceed 30 days in any one (1) calendar year.

12 Transmission of shares

Transmittee right to register or transfer

12.1 Subject to the Bankruptcy Act 1966 (Cth) and the Corporations Act, if a person entitled to a share because of a Transmission Event gives the Directors the information that they reasonably require to establish the person's entitlement to be registered as the holder of any shares, that person may do either of the following:

12.1.1 Elect to be registered as a Shareholder in respect of those shares by giving a signed notice in writing to the Company, and on receiving this notice the Company must register the person as the holder of those shares.

12.1.2 Transfer those shares to another person. That transfer is subject to the provisions of this document relating to the transfer of shares.

Other transmittee rights and obligations

12.2 A person who has given to the Directors the information referred to in clause 12.1 in respect of a share is entitled to the same rights to which that person would be entitled if registered as the holder of that share.

- 12.3 A person registered as a Shareholder as a result of a Transmission Event must indemnify the Company and the Directors to the extent of any loss or damage suffered by the Company or the Directors as a result of that registration.

Deceased shareholders

- 12.4 Both of the following apply upon the death of a Shareholder:
- 12.4.1 If a Shareholder (not being one (1) of several joint registered holders) dies, the Company must recognise only the legal personal representative of that Shareholder as having any title or interest in a share registered in the name of that Shareholder or any benefits accruing in respect of that share.
- 12.4.2 If a Shareholder (being one (1) of several joint registered holders) dies, the Company must recognise only the surviving joint registered holders of that share as having any title or interest in, or any benefits accruing in respect of, that share.
- 12.5 Nothing in this document releases the estate of a deceased joint holder from a liability in respect of a share which had been jointly held by the deceased Shareholder with other persons.
- 12.6 Where two (2) or more persons are jointly entitled to any share as a consequence of the death of the registered holder of that share, they are taken to be joint holders of that share.

13 Compulsory sale of a Member or Shareholder's Shares

- 13.1 The Company may sell the shares of any Member or Shareholder:
- 13.1.1 Where the Directors resolve that:
- (a) The Member and/or Shareholder has failed to discharge his obligations to the Company, whether prescribed by this document or arising out of any contract between the Member and/or Shareholder and the Company, or
- (b) The Member and/or Shareholder has engaged in conduct detrimental to the Company.
- 13.1.2 If the Member is an Inactive Member.
- 13.1.3 If the Member:
- (a) ceases to conduct business as a travel agent;
- (b) becomes insolvent; or
- (c) ceases to be of good character and reputation, or in the case of a Member that is incorporated, a director of the Member ceases to be of good character and reputation.

- 13.2 The Company must not sell the shares of a Member and/or Shareholder under clause 13.1.1 unless written notice of the proposed resolution has been given to the Member and/or Shareholder not less than seven days before the meeting of the Directors and the Member and/or Shareholder has been given an opportunity of being heard at the meeting.
- 13.3 In respect of any share that may be sold by the Company under this clause 13:
- 13.3.1 Such shares may be sold in such manner as the Directors determine and the proceeds of such sale less any expenses incurred in connection therewith shall be paid to the Member and/or Shareholder or set off against monies owing to the Company by the Member and/or Shareholder.
- 13.3.2 The Company may receive the consideration on the sale of the share and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the transferee.
- 13.3.3 The Member and/or Shareholder must surrender to the Company the share certificate in respect of the share and the Member and/or Shareholder authorises the Company to cancel the certificate whether or not it has been surrendered to the Company.
- 13.3.4 On execution of the transfer the transferee must be registered as the holder of the share. The transferee is not bound to see to the application of any money paid as consideration.
- 13.3.5 The title of the transferee to the share is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in connection with the sale of the share.
- 13.3.6 After notice of the intended sale has been given by the Company to the Member and/or Shareholder but before the sale thereof by the Company:
- (a) All dividends declared and payable in respect of such shares shall be forfeited by the Member and/or Shareholder and added to the Reserve funds of the Company; and
- (b) the Member's right to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company shall be suspended.
- 13.3.7 The Directors may specifically exempt a Member and/or Shareholder from any of the limitations prescribed in clause 13.3.6, and may remove that exemption at any time, as they see fit.

14 General meetings

Convening of meetings by Directors

- 14.1 The Directors may convene a general meeting at any time.

Convening of meetings by Shareholders

- 14.2 The Directors must call and arrange to hold a general meeting if required to do so under the Corporations Act.

Notice of general meeting

- 14.3 A notice of a general meeting may be given by any form of communication permitted by the Corporations Act. The notice must specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting and if the meeting is to be held in two (2) or more places, the Technology that will be used to facilitate the meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted and any other matters as are required by the Corporations Act.
- 14.4 The accidental omission to give notice of any general meeting to, or the non receipt of a notice by, a person entitled to receive notice does not invalidate a resolution passed at the general meeting.

Cancellation of general meetings

- 14.5 The Directors may cancel a general meeting, other than a general meeting which they are required to convene and hold under the Corporations Act.
- 14.6 A meeting may only be cancelled under clause 14.5 if notice of the cancellation is given to all persons entitled to receive notice of the meeting at least two (2) business days prior to the time of the meeting as specified in notice of meeting.

Quorum at general meetings

- 14.7 Business may not be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Except as otherwise set out in this document, seven (7) Members present in person, utilising any form of approved Technology or by representative is a quorum.
- 14.8 If a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting or a longer period allowed by the chairperson one of the following applies:
- 14.8.1 If the meeting was convened by or on the requisition of Members, it must be dissolved.
- 14.8.2 It must stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to another day and at another time and place determined by the Directors.
- 14.9 If a meeting has been adjourned to another time and place determined by the Directors, not less than seven (7) days notice of the adjourned meeting must be given in the same manner as in the case of the original meeting.
- 14.10 If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting must be dissolved.

Appointment of chairperson

- 14.11 If the Directors have elected one (1) of their number as the chairperson of their meetings, that person is entitled to preside as the chairperson at every general meeting.
- 14.12 The Directors present at a general meeting must elect one (1) of their number to chair the meeting if either of the following applies:

- 14.12.1 A Director has not been elected to the office of chairperson of Directors meetings.
- 14.12.2 The chairperson is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or he is unwilling to act.

 - 14.13.2 All Directors present decline to take the chair.

Chairperson's powers

- 14.14 Subject to the terms of this document dealing with adjournment of meetings, the ruling of the chairperson on all matters relating to the order of business, procedure and conduct of the general meeting is final and no motion of dissent from a ruling of the chairperson may be accepted.

Adjournment of meetings

- 14.15 The chairperson may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and must if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting to another time and to another place.
- 14.16 The only business that may be transacted at any adjourned meeting is the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- 14.17 When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as in the case of an original meeting.
- 14.18 Except when a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, it is not necessary to give a notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

Procedure at meetings

- 14.19 The following standing orders shall be observed at the Company's meetings:
 - 14.19.1 The mover of a proposition shall not speak for more than ten (10) minutes; subsequent speakers shall be allowed five (5) minutes; and the mover of the proposition five (5) minutes to reply;
 - 14.19.2 Whenever an amendment is proposed upon an original proposition, no second amendment shall be taken into consideration until the first amendment shall have been disposed of;
 - 14.19.3 If an amendment be carried, it shall displace the original proposition and become itself the proposition to which any further amendment may be moved;

- 14.19.4 If an amendment be negatived, then a further amendment may be moved to the original proposition; but only one (1) amendment shall be submitted to the meeting for discussion at one time;
- 14.19.5 The mover of every original proposition, but not of an amendment, shall have the right to reply, immediately after which the question shall be put from the chair, but no other shareholder shall speak more than once on the same question unless permission be given to explain or the attention of the chairperson be called to a point of order;
- 14.19.6 Proposition and amendments shall be submitted in writing, when requested by the chairperson;
- 14.19.7 Any discussion may be closed by a resolution "that the question be now put" being moved, seconded and carried, and any such resolution shall be put to the meeting without debate.

Voting on show of hands

- 14.20 At a general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded before that vote is taken or before the result is declared or immediately after the result is declared.
- 14.21 If a poll is not duly demanded, a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company, is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

Demand for a poll

- 14.22 A poll may be demanded by any of the following:
 - 14.22.1 The chairperson.
 - 14.22.2 At least five (5) Members entitled to vote on the resolution.
- 14.23 The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- 14.24 The demand for a poll does not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of business other than the question on which a poll is demanded.
- 14.25 If a poll is duly demanded, it must be taken in the manner and, except as to the election of a chairperson or on a question of adjournment, either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the chairperson directs. The result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.
- 14.26 A poll demanded on the election of a chairperson or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.

Voting rights of Members and Shareholders

14.27 The right to vote attaches to Member Shares (and not all shareholding). Each Member who holds Member Shares gets one (1) vote regardless of the number of Member Shares held and the following rules apply:

14.27.1 On a show of hands every person present entitled to vote has one (1) vote irrespective of the number of shares issued to that Member, or the number of proxies held by that person. A Member may not be represented by more than one authorised representative or proxy in respect of a vote.

14.27.2 On a poll every Member present in person, by proxy, or, being a body corporate, by a corporate representative has one (1) vote irrespective of the number of shares issued to that Member. A person who is appointed as proxy by a Member has only one (1) vote for each Member in respect of which he or she is appearing as proxy.

Joint Members' vote

14.28 In the case of joint holders the vote of the person whose name appears first on the Register of Members whether as an individual or a corporate representative, must be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders.

Voting rights where calls unpaid

14.29 A Member is not entitled to vote at a general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by the Member in respect of shares have been paid.

Vote of the Chairperson at general meetings

14.30 In a case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairperson of a general meeting has a casting vote in addition to their deliberative vote (if any) as a Member.

Objections to voter qualification

14.31 No objection may be raised to the qualification of a voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered. An objection to the qualification of a voter must be referred to the chairperson, whose decision is final. A vote not disallowed according to an objection as provided in this document is valid for all purposes.

15 Proxies and representatives

Proxies and representatives of Members

15.1 At meetings of Members each Member entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy.

15.2 A Member being a body corporate may appoint an individual being a director of the body corporate as a representative.

- 15.3 Except as expressly provided by the terms of their appointment, a person attending as a proxy or as representing a body corporate which is a Member has all the powers of a Member, except where expressly stated to the contrary in this document.

Appointment of proxies

- 15.4 A Member may appoint a person as their proxy to attend and vote instead of the Member. A document appointing a proxy must be in writing, in any form permitted by the Corporations Act and signed by the Member making the appointment.
- 15.5 No Member can hold more than five (5) undirected proxies

Authority of proxies

- 15.6 A document appointing a proxy may specify the manner in which the proxy is to vote in respect of a particular resolution and, where the document so provides, the proxy is not entitled to vote on the resolution except as specified in the document. Except as expressly provided by the document appointing a proxy, an appointment of a proxy confers authority to do all things that the Member can do in respect of a general meeting, except that the proxy is not entitled to vote on a show of hands.

Verification of proxies

- 15.7 Before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which a proxy proposes to vote, there must be deposited with the Company both of the following:
- 15.7.1 The document appointing the proxy.
- 15.7.2 If the appointment is signed by the appointor's attorney, the authority under which the appointment was signed or a certified copy of that authority.
- 15.8 Those documents must be received at the Office, at a fax number at the Office or at another place, fax number or electronic address specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting.
- 15.9 If a general meeting has been adjourned, an appointment and any authority received by the Company at least 48 hours before the resumption of the meeting are effective for the resumed part of the meeting.

Validity of proxies

- 15.10 A proxy document is invalid if it is not deposited or produced prior to a meeting or a vote being taken as required by this document.

Revocation of appointment of proxy

- 15.11 A vote given in accordance with the terms of a proxy document or power of attorney is valid despite the occurrence of any one (1) or more of the following events if no intimation in writing of any of those events has been received by the Company at the Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the document is used:
- 15.11.1 The previous death or unsoundness of mind of the principal.

15.11.2 The revocation of the instrument or of the authority under which the instrument was executed.

15.11.3 The transfer of the share in respect of which the instrument or power is given.

16.3 The Member Directors to retire at an annual general meeting are those who have been longest in office since their last election whether or not before or after the incorporation of the Company under the Corporations Act. If two (2) or more persons became Member Directors on the same day, those to retire must be determined by lot unless they otherwise agree among themselves.

16.4 A Director retiring at an annual general meeting who is not disqualified by law from being reappointed is eligible for re-election and may act as a director throughout the meeting at which that Director retires.

16.5 A Director may retire from office by giving notice in writing to the Company of that Director's intention to retire. A notice of resignation takes effect at the time which is the later of the following times:

- 16.12 The Directors may appoint any person which they consider has special skills to be a non-executive director (to be known as a Non-Member Nominee Director) on such terms and conditions and for such period as the Directors may decide not exceeding four years, and may set the remuneration and allowances to be paid to the Non-Member Nominee Director for services as a director.
- 16.13 A Non-Member Nominee Director is, subject to clause 16.12, a Director of the Company for the period of his or her appointment.
- 16.14 A Non-Member Nominee Director must not be a Shareholder of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company.
